

Career Related to Drama

What is drama?

Drama is an art form that explores human conflict and tension. It generally takes the form of a story presented to the audience through dialogue and action. The story is conveyed using the elements of theater: acting, costumes, props, scenery, lighting, music and sound. Drama has an emotional and intellectual impact on both the participants and audience members. It broadens our perspective through stories that portray life from a different point of view, culture and time period.

Actor/Actress

Agent

Announcer

Announcer

Art Critic

Artistic Director

Arts Administrator

Arts Administrator

Box Office Manager

Broadcast Technician

Camera Operator

Carpenter/Scenic Artist

Casting Director

Casting Director

Circus Performer

Comedian

Communications Specialist

Costume Designer

Dance Teacher

Dancer

Director

Drama Teacher

Drama Therapist

Drama Therapist

Drama/Speech Coach

Editor

Educational Assistant

Electrician

Event Planner

Film Editor

Fine Arts Manager

Fitness Instructor

Fundraiser

Hairstylist

Historian

Interviewer

Journalist

Journalist

Lawyer

Lighting Designer

Magician

Makeup Artist

Marketing Manager

Media Relations

Model

Motivational Speaker

Musician

Performing Arts Publicist

Personal Manager

Playwright

Press Director

Producer

Production Assistant

Project Manager

Property Designer

Public Relations Director

Publicist

Radio Presenter

Recreation Director

Rigger

Set Designer

Sound Designer

Special Effects Artist

Stage Manager

Stunt Person

Talent Manager

Technical Director

Technical Writer

Television Production Assistant

Theatre Director

Theatrical Press Agent

TV/Radio Host or Personality

TV/Radio Reporter

University Professor

Vocal Coach

Voice Over Artist

Volunteer Coordinator

